

The Heart of the Matter

9. What are the “good” things in your life that God has blessed you with over the years? What are you still longing for?

10. Over the years, would you say you’ve had more good days or more bad days? How would walking with God put you in a position to bring you more good days in the years to come?

11. On day two of Genesis 1 it appears that God created the physical heavens. How would you say the physical heavens relate to what you understand about a spiritual heaven?

12. What is God showing you about who He is through this study of creation?

God Alone Genesis 1:1-13 For the Week of September 26, 2021

Getting Started

1. What insight, principle, or observation from this weekend’s message did you find to be the most helpful, eye-opening, or troubling?

2. Why do you think dictionaries are so important to us?

3. If you had to describe a day to someone who had never been on our planet, how would you do it?

Digging Deeper

4. In Genesis 1:4 God describes the creation of light as “good.” In what ways would you say that light is good in a physical sense? Spiritual sense?

5. What do you think it means that God separated the light from the darkness in verse 4? Why would this particular separation be so important?

6. In verse 5 God defines what day and night are. How are day and night differentiated? Why are these definitions so important to establish so early in the Genesis account?

7. Are you able to draw a picture of what God did on day 2 in verses 6-8? How would you label everything?

8. In verse 8 what did God call the expanse He created in verse 6? What is so significant with what God created on day 2? How might it relate to the flood account found in chapters 6-8 of Genesis, specifically in Genesis 7:11-12?

9. As God concludes day 2 of creation, what is similar with what He says in verse 5 and 8? What is different?

8. As we consider the pattern of God’s created order in Genesis 1, what impresses you the most with all that God is doing in these first six days of creation?

9. What puzzles you the most with these first 8 verses of Genesis 1? How could you find answers to some of your questions?
